

Cells showing more than five γH2AX foci per cell are quantified. Immunofluorescence staining has been repeated two times independently. Data are shown as mean ± standard deviation and analyzed using two-tailed unpaired t test. * represents statistical significance ($p < 0.05$).

Figure S1: Quantification of cells showing more than five γH2AX per cell.