

Figure S1. Full-field ERGs from the proband (panels on the left) and from a representative unaffected control subject (panels on the right). Both dark-adapted and light-adapted responses were non-recordable in the proband. Amplitude ($\mu\text{V}/\text{div}$) and latency (ms/div) scales are indicated at the upper-left and at the bottom-right corner of each image, respectively.